It fortifies its suggestion by the mistaken statement that the British Consul-General presides at the general meetings of the China Association.

Concerning Mr. Pennell, the eccentric Indian Civilian who was lately dismissed the service by the Government, a Rangoon correspondent writes to a contemporary :- The Government of India have, I see, been reviewing Mr. Pennell's record in Burma. It makes poor reading. Mr. Pennell has his points, though it must be admitted he did his best to hide them. When Deputy Commissioner of Maubin (a deadly place in the Delta where the mosquitoes stand almost polo-hoight) he did more than any other man has ever "done to clear the place of the corruption then and always rampant there. He ended his service here by putting to sea in his launch with the treasury keys aboard, and his whereabouts was unknown for days. He aged the Chief Commissioners considerably and was almost the death of the Accountant-General.

A disturbance between the Japanese an Union fishermen occurred at Vancouver on the 21th nit. It appears the Japanese obtained permission to erect an arch in the city in honour of the visit of the Dake of Cornwall and York. Threats to burn the arch and attempts to distroy it were made by Union fisherman, who fought against the Japanese working in the salmon-fisheries all through the summer. The feeling of the working-men is said to be very bitter, and when the Japanese started work on the arch the other day, right in the centre of the city, criticism of allowing such action was A Peking telegram, dated October 16th, to the very pointed, and the police had to be called out to protect the Japanese. Hawaii has never done much in the way of statues, or permanent memorials of great men, the heroic figure of Kamehameha and the monument to Captain Cook (the latter built by the British) being the only ones we can recall, says a Honolulu paper. It is singular, considering the wealth of the Royalist element here, that the modern Hawaiian kings, notably Kalakaus, were never represented by appropriate public sculpture. It is now proposed to erect a statue to McKinley, a task which, we hope, may reach fulfilment.

New ricksha regulations have just been published at Bangkok. Some points in them are worthy of notice. Every ricksha plying for hire must be registered. The registration paper will be issued only if the vehicle is in good condition and clean, and otherwise suitable. The permit to ply for hire will be withdrawn at any time if the riksha is not kept in a proper condition. The puller has to be suitably dressed and must have the number of his ricksha on his dress. No ricksha may carry more than two adults; no ricksha may carry anything that is dirty or offensive: it is further prohibited to against the Southern Viceroys. carry a corpse or live pigs, sheep or goats.

The Washington Star says :- "The fact that our language is spreading over the world at an amazing rate emphasises regret for its. numberless defects and increases the desire for needed reforms. One of the worst defects is that we have many words which, while differing in orthography and meaning, are alike in sound. For examples, 'rowed,' 'rode,' 'road'; 'write,' "rite," "right," wright." Is it not surprising that foreigners sometimes acquire a pretty goodtake into account the extra confusion which would be entailed for instance by spelling four different words "rite." This is the weakness. of phonetic reformers.

A Washington despatch, dated September 26th, says. - In reply to an enquiry from the Collector of Customs at San Francisco, Acting Secretary Spaulding has held that drawbacks cannot be allowed on goods shipped to the Philippines. He invites the attention of the Collector to the department's decision of August 7th, 1901, wherefo it is held that merchandise cannot be exported to the island of Guam with benefit of drawback, inasmuch as that island is within the jurisdiction of the United States. He says for the reasons set forth therein no drawback can be allowed on shipments to the Philippines. In order to be entitled to drawbacks the shipments must be made to countries without the jurisdiction of the United States.

The Commander of the Japanese torpedo. destroyer Murakumo, which was sent to the scene of the Tsuruhiko Maru wreck, states that the vessel is understood to have struck a rock and gone down almost immediately. On searching at Ojima and Mejima islands some railway sleepers and wreckage were discovered, but nothing to establish the exact locality of the wreck. Only one of the crew was saved, and there is no hope of salvage operations. The steamer was insured for 144,000 yen the cost 130,000 year, and it is understood that 60,000 were expreded upon repairs. It is thus estimated that the owners will lose 50,000 yen. The vessel was under contract with the Formosan Government to reach Keelung on or before the 10th inst, and this explains why she left Moji in spite of the storm warning issued by the Japanese Central Meteorological Station

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 27th ult. says :- The right of two alleged Chinese students to be admitted to the country has been challenged by the resident inspector of immigration, and they are now detained until the Government decides what shall be done with them. These Chinese came here in the Doric in charge of a returning American missionary. It is claimed that they intend entering Oberlin College, to take a regular course in that institution. They are provided with passports which contain irregularities that warranted the immigration inspector in refusing to admit them. Too much care cannot be taken in the supervision of the credentials of so-called students and merchants from China who seek the privilege of admission under the provisions of the treaty and the exclusion law. This privilege has been grossly abused in the past. Numberless so-called atudents have entered the effective is to exclude.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents, TRAMWAY FARES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." Hongkong, 24th October.

SIR,-I understand that your energies and influence are given to endeavour to improve the state of Hongkong by expressing your own views and publishing those of similar mind on the subjects of public health, overcrowding, moans of conveyance, and all other matters that would come under Municipal Government if such obtained here. There is a point which I would like to bring before your readers as another effort to lead them to seek for further reforms.

We have heard a great deal about the proposed tramway, and it was hoped that if fares on it are made cheap enough many people might move out of the central districts to live. Now it seems to me that the proposed fares are exorbitant and will have little or no effect in the direction of relieving congestion. The people of America are, I believe, far ahead of us in the matter of cheap fares. I have heard that in New York one can go 14 miles for 5 ots.. gold, riding round a great part of the city (jucluding one or two transfers). A similar ride may be had in Montréal, I believe, at the same price. Some may say that these places have a large travelling public and can therefore afford a low fare, but I know that in Vancouver, B.C., where there is only a population of 20,000 or 30,000 the same fares obtain for a ride all round the town and suburbs, in fact, cheaper 'tickets are issued (my recollection is that the price is 25 ets. gold for 6 tickets).

I have lately been reading W. T. Stead's book If Christ Came to Chicago, and on p. 286 of the edition I am reading there is an account of a new Mayor in Detroit. He had determined to take monopolies from street traffic companies, and amongst other things he arranged to grant to a corporation the right to make a railway throughout the town under the following conditions; Girder grooved rails to be used .-Roadway between tracks to be re-paved .- No overcrowding permitted in cars, which must be of most approved design for service and comfort.-Fare to be 25 ets. (gold) for 8 tickets, with right of transfer in city limits, and further. The City Council is to have the right to purchase the line at a valuation to be fixed by arbitration at the expiration of 15 years, or to take over the whole plant, exclusive of rolling stock, free gratis and for nothing, at the end of

Now, Sir, it seems to me monopolies are being formed here. The travelling public of Hongkong is to be exploited for private gain and without any compensating good in the shape of relief of congestion. I trust that your efforts and those of other public spirited people | request at quotations. Cantons have sold at $157. may be successful in spoiling such schemes. If the Government cannot manage otherwise, they might ask for tenders from American firms, and I feel sure that in a short time we might have a cheap and efficient tram service all round the island, -Yours, etc.,

The Struits papers state that owing to the departure of the 16th M.I. from Singapore on or about the 16th November, loon Lands are wanted at 8311. West Points it appears to be pretty certain that Capt. R. H. Dewing, who is on leave in Japan, will have to pass through Hongkong on his return before the Straits oricket team arrives here. In that case the Straits team will lose its strongest cricketer, which is a pity.

FOOTBALL.

This afternoon on the Happy Valley ground the Hongkong Football Club will play H.M.S. Argonaut, the kick-off being at a quarter-past four. The following will play for the Club :-H. S. Bevan, goal: J. A funny incident happened in a little church in Tasmania recently, says a correspondent of Cricket. The parish clerk was a great cricket enthusiast as well as a notable umpire. One hot Sunday he was dozing in his official desk at church, dreaming doubtless of the great match to be played next day. At the close of the sermon, when the time came for him to pronounce his customary "Amen." he astonished the minister, and highly delighted the congregation, by shouting, in stentorien tone,

CRUELTY TO FOWIS. Yesterday morning Sergeant McHardy arrested a foki for cruelly ill-treating fowls by carrying them in such a manner as to cause

CRAFTY THIEVING. Young Thin, a direman employed at the Taikoo Sugar Refinery, was charged on the complaint of Mr. W. Murray Scott, acting manager, with stealing a quantity of metal from the Reinery. This sort of thing has been very prevalent of late at Taikoo, but the peculiar part of it was that the metal was never taken out of the gate. because the workmen are all searched before leaving, and any attempt at theft would instantly be detected. A watch was set the other night, and the defendant was seen by an Indian watchman to throw the metal over the wall enclosing the works into a nullah which runs between the Refinery and the houses the workmen. The metal would presumably have been picked up by people from the houses had not the watchman given the alarm and arrested the defendant.

His Worship passed sentence of 14 days' hard labour.

NORTHERN NOTES.

The following items are from the P. & T. Times of the 12th October :-A small Japanese bank is about to be opened in Peking.

The Tung Wen College in Peking has been handed over to the Chinese by the German military authorities. The Provisional Government has made a rifle range for the Chinese police at the South-west of the city; also reserved a place for drilling The Assay Office in the Provisional Government Bank opened a few days ago. The staff have come from Shanghai. Syces, however, is very scarce and little has been sent to the Hank. The Race days originally fixed for the 6th and 9th prox have been altered to Tuesday and Wednesday, November 12th and 13th.

Lu Chuan-lin has reported to the Empress Dowager on the reform memorials sent by Viceroy Liu; he is said to have stigmatised them as being somewhat mixed, and to have insinuated that the Viceroy is in his dotage. The Je Je says that in the reorganisation of the Government many departments will be back, there will be a great cartailment of former useless offices, and foreignors will be employed. One of the Consors in Peking has given permission to a Chinaman to publish a newspaper, at the same time cautioning him to observe the rules which editors in Europe are bound by law to practice; he further advises him to apply to the plenipotentiaries. The Judicial Department of the T. P. G. has during last week, been fully employed with the settlement of Civil cases, at which tawyers have appeared, in one case no less than three, two on one side, and one on the other. The cases have involved large issues.

The Chinese houses lately and now being erected in the French Concession are a vast improvement on the "mean streets" of former days. The houses are now uniform and the roads wide. French town will presently offer a very handsome appearance.

The native papers more stendily incline to the view that Yuan Shi-kai will be the Viceroy of Chihli. A telegram to a native paper states that the smaller officials left Hsian on the 4th. the higher officials on 5th and the Court on the 6th. The hire of carts, etc., has gone up

The provinces around Honan and Shensi are required to sond officials to meet the Court in Honan. So Chang Chih-tung and Yuan Shikai will be there, but not Liu Kung-yi. He applied for leave, but for a two fold reason, was not sanctioned. He was too old to travel, and his post is too important for him to leave it.

The rush for the purchase of official rank has been tremendous, and money has been flowing to the Imperial exchequer from all quarters of the Empire. Now, to their great mortification, an Edict has appeared abolishing all small posts, and the consequence is that those who have purchased the lover grades find that the rank

When Prince Su undertook the charge of the Peking City gate octroi, he promulgated notices to the effect that there must be no abuses, but that everything should be carried on in a straightforward manner. For a little time matters went very correctly, but at present squeezing and cheating are just as rife as in former times.

The Centurious are to erect their memorial to their shipmates who fell in China in 'Ports. mouth : and our last advices from the Burfleur (now at Yokohama) are that Weihaiwei wil probably be the locality of their collective monument. Tientsin is rejected on the ground that naval men as a rule would not see a memorial erected there.

Before the trouble the Provincial Judge Ting-shuh, in Paotingfus acting under orders of the Court, prohibited people from reading newspapers and punished the Chinese Christians. Having recently been appointed by Brince Ching to a post in Peking City, he is now in every way helping the foreigner, and is a particular friend of a prominent missionary. The vernacular paper published at Kiaochow reports that large numbers of the inhabitants of Shantung, are becoming Christians, and many of them have presented umbrellas to the churches! This circumstance seems to cause great surprise to our contemporary, as, last year, during the troubles, the Christians were hated, wherens now they are imitated and followed.

A high official has memorialised the Throne that some one be appointed to publish an illustrated book showing the sufferings that the Court has sustained during its flight from Peking, and that the book be circulated throughout China, so that the people may be ashumed for what they have done (sie). There is a positively delicious blandness in this latest specimen of courtier's zeal.

A number of enunchs have been round the countryside a. Hsian using the cunuch Li's name and extorting money. This displeased Li, and he reported the matter to the Empress Downger. A censor suggests that in order to clear cunuch Li's name, it is better that the Court should issue a proclamation to all officials that no eunuchs are permitted to take money from either the officials or the people.

On Wednesday night a mixed patrol composed, we understand, of Gormans, Sikhs, and River police cume to a low wall in the neighbourhood of Chun Liang Ch'eng, and there met a gang of river pirates; the latter fired a volley and fled. One of the River police was killed and two men of the Hongkong Regiment severely wounded : one with a shot in the nock resulting in partial paralysis; the other had his leg shattered. The thieves in flight left their rifles and a considerable quantity of ammuni-

THE AMEER'S DEATH.

RECEIPT OF THE NEWS IN ENGLAND. London, 8th October,

On hearing of the death of the Ameer, Lord George Hamilton hurried to London and special meeting of the India Council was held n the afternoon.

The papers publish long obituary notices on the Ameer and articles recognising his sugacity and energy and efforts to improve his country, and hoping that Habibullah inherits his father's strength and capacity. While regretting the Ameer's death, the articles rejoice that it has come when the administration of India is in the hands of a Viceroy exceptionally familiar with Afghanistan, and whose prudent energy commands the confidence of all.

Sir Lepel Griffin, on being interviewed, urged that the Government should promptly acknowledge Habibullah and strengthen his position by every means. He will then remain England's firm friend and ally. Sir Lepel added that the independent strength of Afghanistan is India's best shield.

The Times says the best way to avert aggression and intrigue is to afford prompt and firm countenance to Habiballah. FROM INDIAN SOURCES.

Simla, 9th October. Reliable information from Kabul shows that Habibullah has peacefully succeeded his father and has been accepted by the people of Kabul as Ameer. He was proclaimed by his two brothers Nasrallah and Umra Jan and by the notables of Kabul last Friday, and the khutba (prayers for the Ameer) was read in his name in the city mosques and is now being similarly read in all the mosques throughout Aighanistan. The late Ameer at his own request has been buried in Bostan Serai, Kabul City, and His Highness Habibullah has ordered public mourning for him. Ayub Khan remains quietly at Murree and Yakuh Khan at Mussoorie. NO COMPLICATIONS.

Allahabad, 9th October. The Pioneer's frontier correspondent sends the news confirming the report of the Ameer's death on the 3rd instant. He does not speak of any complications having arisen at Kabul regarding the succession to the throne, and the belief in Simla that Habibullah has succeeded without let or hindrance is growing stronger. #### THE SENTENCE ON CZOLGOSZ.

A Buffalo telegram of the 26th ult. gives the following description of the close of the trial of the late U.S. President's murderer :-Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was sentenced this afternoon to be electrocuted in Auburn States Prison during the week beginning October 28, 1901. Before sentence was pronounced, the assassin ovinced a desire to speak, but he could not get his voice above a whisper, and his words were repeated to the Court by his counsel.

"There was no one else last me," the prisoner said, in a whisper. " No one clse told me to do it, and no one paid me to do it. I was not told anything about the crime and I never thought anything about it until a couple of days before I committed the crime."

Czolgosz sat down. He was quite calm, but it was evident that his mind was flooded with thoughts of his own distress. His eyes were dilated, making them appear very bright. His cheeks were a trifle pale and his outstrocked hand trembled. The guards put the handcuffs on his wrists. He looked at one of the officers There was an expression of the profoundest fear and helplessness in his eyes. He glanced about at the people who crowded the room in efforts to get a look at him. The prisoner's eyelids rose and fell tremulously and then he fixed his gaze upon the floor in front of him.

At this point Judge Titus came over to the prisoner and bade him goodby. Czelgosz replied very faintly, letting his eyes rest upon the man who had been his counsel "Goodby," he said, moskly.

Czolgosz was then hurried downstairs and through the "tunnel of sobs" to the jail, where he will remain until removed to Auburn to pay

Although the time announced for convening the court was 2 o'clock, every seat and every o'clock, and scores were chamouring outside for British Agent at Kabul, Lieutenant-Colonel admission. The doors were locked and no more were admitted to the room. The prisoner was brought into the room at 1.55. Five minutes later Justice White took his place upon the District Attorney Penny said: If your honour please. I move sentence in the case of the Clerk Fisher swore the prisoner, and his record was taken by the District Attorney as follows: Age. 28 years; nativity, Detroit; residence, Breadway, Nowak's, Buffalo occupation, labourer; married or single, single; accounts for the persistent rumours during the degree of education, common school and parochial; religious instruction. Catholic; parents, father living, mother doad ; temperate or intemperate, temporate; former conviction of crime, none.

The clerk of the Court then asked: \"Have you any legal cause to show now why sentence of the Court should not now be pronounced against you?" "I cannot hear that," replied the prisoner. Clerk Fisher repeated his question and Czolgosz replied: "I would rather have this gentleman here spoak," looking toward District Attorney Penney. "I can hear him better." Mr. Ponney then said to the prisoner: Czolgosz, the Court wants to know if you have any reason to give why sentence should not be pronounced against you. Have you anything to say to the judge? Yes or no?" The prisoner did not reply, and Justice White, addressing the prisoner, said: "In that behalf, what you have a right to say relates explicitly to the subject in hand here at this time and which the law provides, why sentence should not be now pronounced against you and defined by the statute. The first is that you may claim that you are insone, the next is that you have good cause to offer either in arrest of the judgment about to be pronounced against

The prisoner replied: "I have nothing say about that." The Court said : " Are you ready ? "

Mr. Penney replied : "Yes." "Have you anything to say?" asked Justice

"Yes," replied the prisoner. "I think he should be permitted to make a statement in exculpation of his act, if the Court please," said Judge Titus. The Court replied: "That will depend upon what his statement is." Justice White then said: "Have you (speaking to Judge Titus) anything to say in behalf of the prisoner at this time?"

"I have nothing to say within the definition of what your honour has read," replied the attorney, "but it seems to me in order that the innocent should not shifter by this defendant's crime, the Court should permit him to exculnate, at least, his father, brother and sisters." From the Court-" Certainly, if that is the object of any statement he wishes to make,

The prisener said : "There was no one else paid me to do it. I was not told anything about the crime, and I never thought anything about murder until a couple of days before I committed the crima."

Judge Titus repeated both these statements.

Then Justice White passed sentence, as In taking the life of our believed President you committed a crime which shocked and outraged the moral sense of the civilised world. You have confessed that guilt, and after learning all that at this time can be learned from made by Shinwaris to shoot the Governor of the facts and circumstances of the case, twelve that place, proving from enquiries made by good jurors have pronounced you guilty and the British authorities in the Khyber to be have found you guilty of murder in the first

You have said, according to the testimony of creditable witnesses and yourself, that no other person aided or abetted you in the commission of this terrible act. God grant it may be so. The penalty for the crime for which you stand convicted is fixed by the statute, and it now becomes my duty to pronounce this judgment against you.

The sentence of the Court is that, in the week beginning October 28, 1901, at the place in the manner and means prescribed by law, you suffer the punishment of death. Remove the prisoner.

Czolgosz stood erect, looking straight at the Judge. He did not tremble; not a muscle quivered. As soon as the death sentence was finished he took his seat in the same indifferent monner! that has characterised him throughout the trial. He was brought to his feet quickly by the officers at 2.20. They shackled him and led him away to the jail, while the crowd surged after him, and the officers had to force a passage for the assassin from the courtroom. Though elution and satisfation were written on every face, there was no applause and no demonstration of any kind on the part of the spectators.

-Czolgosz-was takon from Bullalo to Auburn State Prison to-night to await death by electrocution. Sheriff Caldwell and sixteen men took the prisoner in a special car attached to the regular New York Central train. The train left at 10,06 p.m., and the railroad officials said that an effort to reach Auburn at 2.12 o'clock would be made, which was schedule time. Sheriff Caldwell arranged for the departure, and his moves were kept so secret and were so cleverly managed that no one but the guards, the railroad mon and the newspaper men who were in the jail know that the assassin was being smuggled out of the jail.

An Auburn (N. Y.) despatch of the 27th September nilds :- Czolgosz reached the Auburn State prison at 3 o'clock this (Friday) morning, and on entering the ponitoutiary collapsed

[ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.] A FATAL FEAR.

Mrs. Carmichael nedded gravely in recognition of this involuntary appliause, and resumed : "I was a fearless, meddlesome wench of eighteen or so, and nothing frightened me so much as the suspicion that I know what fear meant: I listened with no feeling save amusement, only audibly expressing a wish that I was violently thrown upon it! went to the vision I had seen on the stairs and I pitied deeply the poor invalid who had met with such a cruel misadventure in R. E. A. BROWNE is prepared to her frail condition; and wondered whether the shock or the exposure were the most to be feared in her case. But breakdowns, highwaymen, and such bars to travelling ease, were not rare (you armed your servants when you journeyed from London to the then suburb of Kensington), so my mind floated away to the more mysterious subjects that had occupied our heed before the event of the evening broke up our ghost-lore coterie.

"When my night gear was donned, and a warm wrap thrown over it, I drew one of the weird looking old seats to the fire and sat down. for a good spell of what we used to call the thinkums! "Every story, every superstition we had told and discussed crowded i ito my head; to which were added bogies of the nursery days, now rendered almost possible of belief through the workings of a roused imagination, and the magic of the hour and surroundings. Soon the big, quiet room began to be noisy with those cracks and creaks, and faint rustlings that make silence audible. "Despite my scorn of fear, and my strong young nerves, I really began to feel eeric-like; and peopled the long dark corners with dim eyes, and wavings of tapestry; and I saw vampire bats in the heavy cornices, and spectral forms among the dull blue damask hangings.

"At last my fears, o'erbore my reasoning, and truly terrified, with but scanty finishing of preparation, I carried a pair of candles to a seat by the bedside, and climbing into that and croedled within the balclothes. "The great bed had one side against the wall, which it did not touch, because of a broad dado, that held it off, as it were. Now in a half mad impulse stronger than any planned action, I edged myself to the wall side of the bed, and slipped over its high edge, on the dado-flat, which just held me, with little or no noise. Here I could, of course, see nothing, but my sense of hearing became more intense, and seemed to pulse in my head like an active agent.

"I soon heard the soft crush of bare feet approaching, and then, merciful Heavens! the great bed vibrated with a shock as some weight might some day have a chance of meeting one of laboured breath, and a heavy pressure up and down on the mattress, a shake of the "Suddenly we became aware of a stir in the damask curtains, a best of helpless arms as agony, and then-I fainted.
